INPECTINE, THE PERSIAN FEVER CHARM, NOR the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers. This wonderful remedy was brought to the knowledge of the present proprietors by a friend who has been a great traveler Persia and the Holy land.

While going down theriver Euphrates, he experienced a severe attack of Fever and Ague. On discovering his condition, one of the Boatmen took from his person an Amulet, saying, "Wear this and no Fever will touch you." Although incredulous as to its virtues; he complied, and experienced immediate relief, and has since always found it an effectual protection from all malarious complaints.

On further investigation he found that the boatman attributed to it miraculous powers, and said that it could only be obtained from the Priests of the Sun. Sometime afterwards, the gentleman in conversing with a Priest obtained from him the secret of its preparation, and ascertained where the medicinal herbs were found, of which it was compounded. The wonderful virtues of this article have induced a full belief in the minds of the natives in the miraculous healing powers of their Priests.

Since his return to America, It has been tried with the happiest effect by several Ladies and Gentlemen of high character, who have given it the most unqualified praise. This remedy having been a specific in Persia for hundreds of years, for the prevention and cure of Fever and Ague and Bilious Fevers-is now offered, to the American people. It will be sent by mail, prepaid, with full directions for use on receipt of one dollar. Principal Depot and Manufactory, 188 Main St.

CAPITAL OVER 350,000 DOLLARS AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING. The Charter of this Company offers more favorable advantages to the farmer and others, than any Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the insured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to | to the public. year. This is the advantage resulting from the combination of the

CASH AND MUTUAL PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 13th day of March, 1854, since which time over seven thousand Alexandria Station, in the Orange Train, at seven hundred persons have insured and become 7, A. IN COMMON COUNCIL.

At a called meeting of the Common Council of Alexandria, held May 2nd, 1861, there were pre-W. D. Massey, esq., President. Messrs. Atkinson, T. S. Jamieson, Triplett, Harmen, Andrew Jamieson, Whittington, Dorsey, Miller, McKenzie, and Smoot. The President stated to Council they had been convened to receive the report of the Committee appointed at the last meeting to confer with the County Court in reference to an appropriation of money to aid in equipping the Volunteer Comps. nies, called into the service of the State.

Mr. Whittington, from the Committee, reported upon the subject, recommending that the City and County jointly, appropriate $2,500, to be distributed to the Companies, as follows: To Company A Mount Vernon Guards Old Dominion Rifles the Treasurer, in favor of the Captains of the above named Companies, for one-half the amount opposite their names, whenever he shall be satisfied that the County Court has given the like amount. On motion of Mr. McKenzie, the Board of Aldermen's order, which was laid on the table at the last meeting, appropriating $200 to assist in stubborn spirit, attached to liberty than equipping the Emmett Guards, was taken up and considered. Moved as a substitute for the report of the Committee, the following: Ordered, That the Auditor issue his warrant in favor of Capt. J. E. Towson, for $200, to assist in ping the Irish Volunteers. The question being taken on the adoption of the substitute, it was lost. On motion of Mr. Whittington, the question was then taken on the adoption of the report of the Committee, and lost. Ayos-Mossrs. T. S. Jamieson, Triplett, Whit ington, Dorsey, Atkinson, and Smoot-6.

Nays-Messrs. McKenzie, Harmon, A. Jamieson, Miller, and Massey-5. On motion of Mr. Smoot, the vote by which the substitute offered by Mr. McKenzie was lost, was reconsidered. Mr. Whittington moved to amend the substitute y adding the words "and in lavor of Capt. S. H.

Devaughn, for $200, for the benefit of the Mount

Vernon Guards." The question was taken on the amendment, and lost by the following vote: Ayes-Messrs. Whittington and Dorsey-2. Noes-Messrs. McKenzie, T. S. Jamieson, Harmon, A. Jamieson, Miller, Atkinson, Smoot, and On motion, the original order of the Board of the Emmett Guards, was concurred in, and on motion of Mr. McKenzie, it was for two hundred dollars, in favor of Capt. Thornton Triplett, to aid in equipping the company called the Irish Volunteers. On motion, Council then adjourned. JAMES DEMPSEY, Clerk.

MISCELLANEOUS READING. THE SPIRIT OF LIBERTY .- The love of liberty. Burke contended, was the predominant feature in the cause of the Americans at the date of the Revolutionary struggle. He said it prevailed at the South more than at the North. His language was-"There is, however, a circumstance attending these Southern colonies which, in my opinion, more than counterbalances this difference | the greater prevalence of the Church of England at the South and makes this spirit of liberty still more high and haughty than in those to the northward. It is that in Virginia and the Carolinas they have a vast multitude of slaves! Where this is the 200 free are by far the most proud and jealous of their freedom. Not seeing there that freedom, as in countries where it is a common blessing, and as broad and general as the air, may be united with much abject toil, with 300 great misery, with all the exterior of servi-The following order accompanied the report: tude, liberty looks amongst them like some-Ordered, That the Auditor issue his warrant on thing that is more noble and liberal. I do not mean to commend the superior morality of this sentiment, which has at least as much pride as virtue in it, but I cannot alter the nature of man. The fact is so, and these people of the Southern colonies are much more strongly, and with a higher and more those to the northward."

The wildest military enthusiasm and patriotism prevails. From the numerous armories, military rendezvous, arsenals, and numerous offices the flag of the Confederacy is flying. Troops are daily arriving from the interior to increase the military enthusiasm. Companies are seen marching through the streets fully equipped, destined for Pensacola, departing amid the wild greetings and shouts of our citizens, the balconies of our houses being crowded by our fair ladies, waving their handkerchiefs in approbation of, and cheering our gallant braves. Squads of soldiers fill the streets on every side .-Omnibuses from different parts of the city are filled with soldiers, inside and on top, carrying their muskets with fixed bayonets. Men and officers are seen hurrying to and Aldermon, appropriating $200, to aid in equipping fro in great haste, and indeed our city is alive with troops, and one would think, from the busy preparations and the great activity prevailing, that the enemy was already besieging our city.

LIGHTNING .- Marvelous Escape of the Inmates.-The first thunder storm of the season visited this region on Tuesday night .-About midnight the lightning struck a dwelling house at Forestdale, near Slatersville, occupied by the families of Danforth Crossman and A. Butts, the members of which were all in bed. Nearly the entire north side of the house was torn off by the pranks within doors. The bed on which two persons lay was moved across the room and its casters melted! A bureau was smashed to pieces and a portion thrown upon the bed. Bed clothing and cloths were rent the event, said her first thought after the thunder clap was "Jeff. Davis has come."-Woonsocket (R. I.) Patriot.
